Subject: $10,000 Donation for Shawn Lamb Archives

The Nelson and District Museum, Archives, Art Gallery and Historical Society has received another significant donation towards the completion of Nelson's new cultural cornerstone.

THE JIM PATTISON FOUNDATION has stepped forward with a $10,000 donation to the facility. The funds will be used for renovation of the lower floor area which is designated for the Shawn Lamb Archives. The cheque is presented to Don Lyon, MAAG Society President by Peter Taillon, Manager of the Nelson Save-On-Foods store on behalf of Save-On-Foods and Jerry Sussenguth, a long time friend and supporter. Mr. Sussenguth is the former Vice President and General Manager of the Pattison Sign Group. Leah Best, Executive Director of the Society is also pictured.

The Society is thrilled to receive this important donation and to acknowledge the broad-based support of this important Nelson project.
